November 8, 2006

To: The Honorable Findlay City Council
From: Mayor Anthony P. Iriti, Chairman
Re: November 7, 2006, Income Tax Board meeting

Presiding: Mayor Anthony P. Iriti

Members Present: David Hackenberg, Rich Rowe, Robert Cole Sprague, and Janet Wobser.

Attending: Andrew Thomas and Kathy Launder.

The meeting was called to order at 8:30 a.m.

Minutes

The minutes of the August 8, 2006, meeting were distributed. Motion to approve minutes as presented, by Wobser, second by Hackenberg. Motion approved 5-0.

2006 Year-To-Date Collections

Thomas reported that 3rd Quarter Employer Withholding was 2.313%. Overall collections are up 6.943%. December's collections will be the determining factor for meeting the City's need. The projected figures show that the overall collections will be -0.358% due to lagging Business Collections figures.

City Income Tax Department 2007 Operating Budget

Thomas distributed the 2007 Operating Budget for the City Income Tax Department. Thomas reported that he is not sure of the full costs involved with the anticipated move to the first floor. The Refund line item will be reduced to $470,000 due to payment of a large refund in 2006 rather than 2007. Motion to approve the 2007 Operating Budget for City Income Tax Department, by Hackenberg, second by Wobser. Motion approved 5-0.

Changes to Income Tax Ordinance and Rules and Regulations in response to Ohio House Bill 95

Thomas distributed changes to the City's Income Tax Ordinance and Rules and Regulations. All changes are essentially in effect by Ohio Revised Code. Changing the City's Income Tax Ordinance Rules and Regulations is a necessary formality. Motion to recommend that City Council adopt the changes to the City's Income Tax Ordinance and Rules and Regulations, by Wobser, second by Ward. Motion approved 5-0.

Nominal Refund Checks

Thomas reported that one of the changes made to the Income Tax Ordinance and Rules and Regulations is changing the minimum refund/tax due amount to less than $5.00.
